Shipping Instructions & Terms and Conditions

Ship to:

Julian Taxidermy
Rugging Department
3402 Agnes Blvd.
Alton, IL 62002

If you are sending frozen whole animals or raw skins:

Send frozen skins packaged so they will stay frozen and will not drip water.

We also recommend next day or 2nd day shipping to ensure that the raw skins and whole animals stay frozen it is also a good idea to inform us of this shipment and when it will be here so we can be watching for it.

Fill out and include Julian Taxidermy Packing slip.

Be sure to include felt colors and mouth pose.

We will send confirmation upon receipt of skins.

25% Deposit on rugs, 50% Deposit on any rug requiring taxidermy work.

Payment to Julian Taxidermy will be required for the tanning before the skins will be released for rugging.

You will receive an invoice from us when the tanning is near completion.

Tanning of salted skins will be approx. 30 days.

Your customer's information should accompany the skins.

Any miscellaneous instructions (i.e. saving skulls) should be noted on packing list.

$20 handling fee on skins deemed unskinnable or untannable (spoiled).

$35 per hour for extra handling (i.e. excessive manure)

All skinning, tanning, taxidermy, and rugging work done at owner's risk.
